- (v) Respect to value self, others and property

CODE OF CONDUCT

- i. Avoid dangerous weapons like knives, surgical knives, pliers, chains, screw drivers, military boots/belts.
- ii. Arrive on time with the necessary books and equipments.
- iii. Treat everybody as you would like to be treated. Being friendly, kind and considerate to others helps make our school a happy place to be.
- iv. Listen attentively to whoever is speaking to you. This will make it possible for everyone to learn and for teachers to teach.
- v. Always be respectful and speak politely to others.
- vi. Take pride in yourself and your school
- vii. Everyone should take care of their own and other people's property. Look after school property and resources so that we can enjoy them. Help keep things clean and tidy.
- viii. Everyone should walk in and around the buildings.
Running and pushing cause accidents.
- ix. Be at the right place at the right time.
- x. Please keep the right dress code.
- xi. The reputation of our school depends on you.
Remember that wherever you are, you represent the school.

- xii. Keep the 3Rs
 - a) Respect for self
 - b) Respect for others
 - c) Respect for property and environment
- xiii. The promotion of mutual respect, self discipline and social responsibility is paramount. We believe all young kings & Queens in Kololo High School have the right to expect that they can fulfill their ambitions to inclusion in education.
- xiv. Good discipline is an essential prerequisite for good learning
- xv. No matter the extent or nature of indiscipline, it is a barrier to learning and teaching.
